YALE PROFESSOR MUST PAY QUIEE HEAVY ALIMONY

HENRY LORD WHEELER'S WIFE IS AWARDED DIVORCE AND $100,000.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 15.—Judge Gager of the superior court Saturday afternoon granted a divorce to Mrs. Henry Lord Wheeler, wife of the Yale professor of organic chemistry, with $100,000 alimony. This is the first time a Yale professor has figured in the divorce court as defendant, and the alimony awarded is said to be the largest ever given in connection with a divorce suit in this state. Professor Wheeler comes from a prominent Chicago family, from whom he is said to have inherited a large fortune. He married Miss Eva Smarshout, an actress, in 1906. They have one child, whose custody has been awarded to the mother. The divorce case was heard in chambers before Henry C. White, who was appointed referee by Judge Gager. The evidence was not made public. The allegations were intolerable cruelty. The referee's report declared that they had been proved in full. The amount of alimony given was the full amount asked. The Wheelers have a handsome house on Trumbull street.

CAREER OF NEW WAR SECRETARY

STIMSON PROVED A TERROR TO SUGAR TRUST AND OTHER COMBINES.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Henry Lewis Stimson, the newly appointed secretary of war, is in the very prime of life, being now in his 43d year of vigorous manhood. He was born in New York of old English stock in 1867. He graduated from Yale in 1888. He then entered the Harvard law school and, after a two years' course, took the degree of M. A. Stimson was admitted to the bar in 1890 and entered the firm of Root & Clark, of which Elihu B. Root was one of the partners. In three years, Stimson became a member of the firm. This firm has enjoyed one of the highest of reputations in New York business circles. With such a fine legal record behind him, Stimson was chosen by President Roosevelt in 1906 to fill the office of United States district attorney in New York. While in this office Stimson gained the reputation of being a man who does not talk but who does things. Among the important cases that he had prosecuted was the noted one against the sugar trust. A judgment of $168,000 was secured against this combination. In 1910 Stimson was nominated for governor on the republican ticket. He waged a whirlwind campaign against Dix, but the democratic wave that swept the country defeated him in the November election.

EDNA WALLACE HOPPER TO HAVE AN AUCTION SALE

ACTRESS WILL DISPOSE OF ALL
EFFECTS IN HER HOME IN NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, May 15.—Broadway had its first opportunity yesterday to take a peep at the sewing machine, needles and thread, darning egg and other household effects of Edna Wallace Hopper, the actress, which are to be sold at public auction next Thursday.

All told, there are 909 articles, ranging in price from a few dollars to paintings valued at $2500. The collection is said to be worth $100,000, and in addition to furniture and beautiful household ornaments, includes gifts of various kinds which were made to the actress by persons of note in all parts of the world.

It is said the sale is the result of a decision of Miss Hopper to sell off everything because she will be on the road most of the time during the next year or so with Richard Carle and company.

IDORA THEATRE MORE POPULAR AT EVERY SHOW

EXCELLENT PERFORMANCE AT IDORA GIVEN LASTNIGHT.
TONIGHT STILL BETTER.

The performance at the Idora last night was, without doubt, the best ever given by any ten-cent show in Tonopah. The team work of Mason, Wilbur and Jordan, acrobats, was thoroughly enjoyed by all and especially the children. Ballard and Alberta, character sketch artists, were well received. They both have good voices and a pleasing way of presenting their parts. Mabel Alberta Jobe is a native of Carlin, Nevada, and has, but recently returned from an extensive trip to the continent and the Hawaiian islands. The three feature films were up to the standard, and one especially fine.

Manager Spencer, of the Idora, has secured two of the best acts ever shown in Tonopah, and announces that he has some surprises up his sleeve in the way of classy attractions. On Friday night he will give a prize for the best act of local talent appearing on the stage. Each afternoon at 2 o'clock a matinee will be given, at which time three reels of photoplays will be shown, in addition to two vaudeville teams. Don't forget to be at the popular Idora Friday night. For tonight the feature films will consist of "The Brighton Fee," a Pathe American comedy; "Lal Chyein," Good Luck, sterling American drama.

Three Hundred and Eleven Happy Ex- cursionists Headed by Band Marched to the Depot and Boarded the Tono- pah Elks' Train for Goldfield.

"WE CAME, WE SAW, WE CONQUERED"

This was the feeling of every one of the 311 persons who went from Tonopah to Goldfield yesterday upon the excursion of the Elks, when they went over to take the "scalp" of the Goldfield crowd, who unceremoniously took it from Tonopah three weeks ago. It was truly a day of Elks in Goldfield yesterday, and the Tonopah lodge carried everything before it. In the numbers that they sent over upon the invitation of the Goldfield lodge, the appearance of the combatants in the estimable baseball game that later took place, in the showing of the excellent band, and the general enthusiasm of all the Elks and their friends who went over.

Goldfield was most gracious in the hospitality that she extended to her visitors, meeting them at the station with a very goodly number, escorting them to the Elks' hall and then seating at a table replete with all the delicacies that the most fastidious could desire. Those of the Goldfield Elks who were not at the train were at the club rooms to meet not only the members of the Tonopah lodge, but also all persons who availed themselves of the rates to go over there and see the great sister city of the mining industry in Southern Nevada.

It was generally remarked by all the Elks that they could not have been favored with more hospitality and could not have been better cared for by any one better than they were received and entertained by the Goldfield people, more especially the Elks.

Tonopah sprung its great surprise in landing upon the community 20 men, who, the like of which before that date had never been seen in Goldfield. Twenty Chinamen dropped into that community, but the Goldfield people manacled them and marched them up the main street in pairs and ordered them to be taken to the bastille of Goldfield, which on that day was the Elks' club rooms. They had expected the "hobble skirts" to reappear and this surprise was but the first to be sprung upon them, as the rest of the day passing by demonstrated.

After the most excellent repast indulged in by everyone, during which time they were treated to the music of a splendid orchestra, which consisted of but a lady at the piano and a man with drums and other instruments used by such an artist, was really a treat and had it been impossible to have seen the performers, one would have thought an orchestra of several pieces was playing.

The band from Tonopah was also in evidence and gave the people of Goldfield their first treat of real live music and made them of the southern town envious of the possession of Tonopah of such a fine musical organization.

Speaking of the baseball game, Tonopah recovered itself in splendid style, surprising its opponents, and went home rejoicing with a score which none of the players really know and perhaps no one else, but which is estimated to be between 15 and 20 to 10, Goldfield being the proud possessor of the 10. The game opened up in most stirring style, each team having two runs to its credit at the end of the first inning. Excitement was intense and the ardor of the people was not even dampened or chilled by the appearance of the most discourteous hail storm which lasted throughout the next two innings. The players manfully fought, and at the end of the fourth inning the score was 10 to 9 in favor of Goldfield. People were waving rampant throughout the throng, but the law-breakers were wise enough not to flourish any coin and, of course, it is not our province to say whether anyone had any, but the supporters of Tonopah were soon seeking dividends very rapidly, the score piling up from 10 to 9 in favor of Goldfield to 12 to 10 in favor of Tonopah, and then almost indefinitely, for home runs became so rapid that they became commonplace and the people preferred to seek refreshments up town rather than to await the determination of the result. The game was over at the end of the sixth inning. The players returned to town and to the hotel to change their habits, but the pleasure seekers repaired to the club rooms of the Elks or to the Goldfield hotel and were there together with the people of Goldfield given a treat to most excellent music of the Tonopah band. It was during this concert that Goldfield became envious of the possession of Tonopah of this one thing, if nothing else, and when Professor Carl and his men were finished they were given rounds and rounds of applause, congratulated upon their excellent musical attainments and most graciously thanked for the inestimable work which they did to make this one of the "banner days" of pleasure for all people that Goldfield has ever seen. Even after the concert was over and it was time for the train scheduled to leave at 6 o'clock many enthusiasts of Goldfield defied the regulations of the railroad and kept the musician busy going from place to place to give everybody a chance to hear the music, those who were not fortunate enough to be at the Elks' club rooms or the Goldfield hotel, and also giving themselves an opportunity to show their appreciation by offering up several libations of health and good will to their good friends from Tonopah.

At the Goldfield hotel the lobby was turned into a dancing floor and Sunday rules were laid aside to give way to the pleasure seeking people of the two towns. The management of the hotel, like everyone else at Goldfield was extremely solicitous of the comfort, welfare and entertainment of the visitors from Tonopah. At length it became time for the people to repair to the train, a goodly number hoping that the rumor was correct which ran that the train would not leave until 8:30 in the evening. After, however, they were satisfied that the inevitable must happen and that they must be on hand at 6 o'clock and obey the schedule, they went to the improvised station, in the freight station of the T. & G. railroad, and all except the band were ready to depart at 6 o'clock; no doubt the band was ready but the people of Goldfield were not ready to have the band be ready, and finally with the efforts of Sheriff Malley and several deputized people as assistants, they were corralled in a couple of busses and rushed to the depot before any improvised restraining orders could be issued against them by the Goldfield authorities and the people in general.

Given a return to Tonopah on about one hour and ten minute schedule, all of the 311 arrived home at 7:30 p. m. delighted with the experiences of the day, proud of the Tonopah Elks and the excursion which they had enabled them to enjoy and full of praise and plaudits for the Goldfield lodge of Elks and the people of Goldfield for their excellent treatment.

They furnished a day full of pleasure and entertainment marred by nothing with the exception of a most deplorable accident to Billy Douglass, who, in the fall of only a couple of feet from a bucking burro, broke the bones of his wrist and sprained his knee. The sympathy of all of the pleasure seekers was with Mr. Douglass in this unfortunate mishap and their good

ONCE FAMOUS SINGER IS WRECK IN HOSPITAL

FRANCIS BARRINGTON FOOTE, WHO SANG WITH PATTI,
NOW DESTITUTE.

NEW YORK, May 15.—Scores of friends were surprised yesterday to learn that Francis Barrington Foote, one of the most popular English baritones of his day, and who sang with Patti at Covent Garden 25 years ago, is destitute and suffering from nervous breakdown in the city hospital on Blackwell's island.

F. Barrington Foote is a son of General Foote of the British army. He came to America in 1900 with introductions to many of the "first families." Countess Leary and Mrs. French were among those who entertained him at Newport. He sang at concerts and was with Eddie Foy in "The Orchid" in 1908.

He had to quit because of illness, and after three months in St. Luke's hospital got work as an actor in a moving picture show. He was broken in voice and health and got $5 a performance for two appearances a week.

MONTROSE AND MONTROSE, A SONG AND DANCE TEAM, AT BUTLER.

At the Butler theater tonight Montrose and Montrose, lady and gentleman song and dance team, open a week's engagement at this popular and well patronized little place of amusement. This team has been a hit wherever they have appeared. The team has just finished Sullivan & Considine's circuit of western time, playing the principal houses in the west, and a treat is in store for the amusement-loving people of Tonopah. The pictures for tonight are as follows: "Roller Skating in Australia," "The Model," "Jimmy the Fox," "The Oppressor" and a Selig feature, entitled "Unto Us a Child Was Born." Our orchestra will be heard in a big selection from some standard opera.

TETRAZZINI IS VICTORIOUS IN A DAMAGE SUIT

NEW YORK, May 15.—The appellate division of the supreme court Saturday affirmed the judgment and order of Justice Gerard in the supreme court dismissing the suit of Isadore Lerner, the theatrical manager, against Louisa Tetrazzini for $39,000 for breach of contract.

Lerner engaged Tetrazzini to sing in Havana in 1904 at a salary of $500 an appearance. He claimed that the singer refused to "comply with the terms of the agreement," but his suit was dismissed on the ground that the contract was null and void, being drawn for the benefit of Lerner alone.

Wishes are with him in the hope of a speedy recovery from his injury. They stopped to think of this even through all of the pleasure.

To both Tonopah and Goldfield Sunday was a banner day, long to be remembered of Elksdom as one of those greatest successes, and by the people from Tonopah and the people of Goldfield, who exchanged their good will and friendship and one to be bettered only by a repetition at some future early date.

QUEEN OF THE SAWDUST RING IS CLAIMED BY DEATH

PRETTY EMMA LAKE DIES OF INJURIES SHE RECEIVED IN A CIRCUS.

NEW YORK, May 15.—Mrs. Gilbert N. Robinson, whose likeness on the billboards made her known to circus-goers all over the country up to a few years ago as "the beautiful Emma Lake," and who was called the greatest equestrienne in the world by Buffalo Bill, died yesterday in Dr. Briton B. Evans' sanatorium in Morris Plains, N. J. "Gil" Robinson, her husband, a member of the famous circus family of Robinsons and grandson of the original "Old John" Robinson, had been with her through most of her illness, but left a few days ago to look after his business in Washington because it was thought that his wife was improving.

A fall three years ago in the ring, in which her graceful and skillful performances had delighted circus crowds for years, was the cause of the ending of Emma Lake's career.

FIRE CAUSES PANIC IN INSANE ASYLUM

CONVICTS AND TRUSTIES AID IN RESCUING 150 WOMEN EN-
DANGERED IN FLAMES.

SALEM, Ore., May 15.—Fire in the state insane asylum here Saturday night caused a panic among the inmates and a loss of $15,000. The blaze started in the women's department, and rapidly spread through the south wing of the building. One hundred and fifty women were rescued from the blazing wards.

Panic seized the patients when smoke and flames burst into the halls, and they shook the bars of their windows frantically, shouting "Fire!" Attendants and physicians rushed in, and in many cases the women had to be carried out bodily.

Convicts were sent over from the penitentiary, and some of the "trustee" patients assisted the local department in putting out the fire. Both attendants and patients lost much of their clothing and furnishings. Defective wiring is believed to have caused the fire.
